I am writing to explain my position on this matter. I was employed with Eastern Livestock as a cattle buyer. At the time the news of Eastern Livestock's demise I had received a commission check in the amount of $8000 and had a remaining commission due in the amount of approximately thirty thousand dollars. To my surprise my $8000 check bounced along with everyone else's including my customers. I thought I had to take loss and move on. Then two years later I am being served these papers.

I have to represent myself because the cost of an attorney exceeds the amount of this claim. The $4500 I was paid was my income from a transaction through Eastern Livestock. I am not sure why a check from Tommy Gibson's account was sent. To date I had no reason to question knowing the $4500 was income I had earned. So maybe you need to look to Eastern Livestock for settlement on this matter. Or when Eastern Livestock can make good on my outstanding pay I can repay you.

Sincerely

Monte James Hiar
